Any user desiring to discontinue service shall notify the District before the date when such service shall be discontinued. The owner shall be responsible for all charges and fees accruing prior to the change of ownership. The water will be turned off on the requested final read date unless instructed otherwise by the new owner. If a request for a final read is not received by the District, the owner shall remain liable for all charges applicable to the account, including, but not limited to, usage charges and applicable fees, until the date of the actual change of ownership.
